*A Guide to Product Recalls
2009*

A Message from Illinois Attorney General Lisa Madigan

As the holiday season draws near, I am pleased to present my third annual Safe Shopping Guide: Home Safe Home. This Guide contains information on every children's product recalled in 2009.

During this time period, 144 children's products were recalled, totaling more than 21.3 million units. This Guide provides a photograph and short description of each of these products. It is my hope that you will use this Guide to ensure that the purchases you make and the gifts you receive this year are safe.

Children's products, however, are not the only items recalled. Each year, millions of common consumer products are recalled. To highlight this important fact, this year's Guide includes a short section highlighting 10 categories of dangerous, recalled products that were not intended for children. These products, ranging from small appliances to clothing to SCUBA equipment, were found to pose a serious risk of injury.

Finally, I also have included information on Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) from Sudden Infant Death Services of Illinois, Inc. According to this organization, SIDS is defined as "a sudden, unexpected death of an apparently healthy infant under one year of age." Although great advances have been made in reducing the risk of SIDS deaths, SIDS still claims the lives of 2,100 infants each year. Although SIDS is not preventable, this Guide contains safe sleeping tips that will provide you with some simple precautionary measures you can take to help reduce its risk.

As we endeavor to ensure the safety of our families by increasing our awareness of product recalls, I am pleased to report that the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) is continuing its work to implement the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008. This Federal law provides consumers with a wide range of new protections by requiring long-sought product safeguards. Among other things, the law creates strict standards for lead and phthalates in children's products; mandates that manufacturers test all their products before they are released into the market to ensure that they are safe; and requires the CPSC to update or create new standards for durable infant and toddler products such as cribs, high chairs, play yards, strollers, bassinets and cradles. The law also increases penalties for non-compliance and creates a public database on the safety of consumer products.

I hope that you find this Guide useful as you purchase and receive children's gifts over the next few months. If you have any questions or concerns about a recall, please call the Attorney General's Product Recall Hotline at 1-888-414-7678 (TTY: 1-800-964-3013).

I wish you and your family a safe and joyous holiday season.

Lisa Madigan
Attorney General

The following is a list of cribs, furniture, and baby gear recalls issued between January 1, 2009 and December 31, 2009.

Flashing Pacifiers Recalled on January 13, 2009.

The pieces of the pacifier can separate, posing a choking hazard. The necklaces attached to the pacifiers pose a strangulation hazard. The pacifiers were sold at retail stores in the Los Angeles area from November 2007 through November 2008.

535,000 Stork Craft Baby Cribs Recalled on January 13, 2009.

All Stork Craft Baby Cribs with a manufacturing date between May 2000 and November 2008 have been recalled. The manufacturing date is located on the assembly instruction sheet attached to the mattress support board. The firm's insignia, "storkcraft baby," is inscribed on the drop side teething rail of some cribs. The cribs were recalled because the metal support brackets used to support the crib mattress and mattress board can crack and break. When one or more support brackets break, the mattress can collapse and create a dangerous gap between the mattress and crib rails. Children can be trapped in the gap and suffocate.

If you have one of these cribs, stop using it immediately. Contact Stork Craft at 1-866-361-3321 or visit www.storkcraft.com to order the free replacement kit that includes new mattress support brackets. The cribs were sold at major retail stores including J.C. Penney, Kmart and Walmart stores nationwide and online at www.amazon.com, www.babiesrus.com, www.costco.com, www.sears.com and www.walmart.com from May 2000 through January 2009 for between $100 and $400.

Jardine Cribs Recall: issued on June 24, 2008 and expanded on January 6, 2009.

The June 24, 2008 Jardine crib recall has been expanded to include three additional models. The following is a list of all crib model numbers that have been recalled. The model number is printed on the inside of the bottom rail of the headboard or footboard. The wooden crib slats and spindles on these cribs can break, creating a gap, which could pose an entrapment and strangulation hazard to infants and toddlers.

The cribs were sold at KidsWorld, Geoffrey stores, Toys "R" Us and Babies "R" Us stores nationwide and online at www.babiesrus.com from January 2002 through January 2009 for between $150 and $330. One model, 0309K00 Mahogany Positano Lifetime Crib, retailed for $450.

200,000 Fisher-Price Rainforest Portable Play Yards Recalled on January 15, 2009.

Three models of Fisher-Price Rainforest play yards have been recalled. The model number is located on a sticker on one of the legs underneath the play yard. One or more of the side rails can collapse unexpectedly, posing a fall or entrapment hazard to young children. There have been at least 1,350 reports of one or more of the rails collapsing. There have been 5 reports of serious injuries including a broken nose, a broken wrist, a mild concussion, a cut to the hand that required stitches and a chipped tooth.

5310 RNFV

If you have one of these play yards, stop using it immediately. Contact Fisher-Price at 1-800-432-5437 or visit www.service.mattel.com to receive a $100 refund. The play yards were sold by various retailers and at specialty children's stores nationwide from January 2007 through January 2009 for about $100.

Home Sweet Playhome Canopies Recalled on January 28, 2009.

A child's head could get entrapped in the canopy's window openings, posing entrapment and strangulation hazards. The canopies were sold through Land of Nod catalogs, online at www.landofnod.com and at Land of Nod stores in Illinois and Washington state from September 2003 through October 2005.

Dorel Safety 1st SmartLight Stair Gates Recalled on February 4, 2009.

The hinges that hold the stair gate in place can break, posing a fall hazard to children if the gate is placed at the top of the stairs. The gates were sold at mass merchandise and juvenile product stores nationwide, including Babies "R" Us and Walmart, from January 2005 through December 2007. Consumers should stop using the recalled gate and contact the company to obtain a free repair kit.

Arch Swing Sets Recalled on February 4, 2009.

The metal around the weld at the top of the swing frame can fail, causing the top bar to fall, posing a fall and impact hazard to the user or bystanders. The firm received one report of a child who suffered a head injury as a result of being struck by the top of the bar on the swing. The swings were sold by Playland International dealers nationwide from September 2001 through May 2006.

Land of Nod Cottage Bunk Beds Recalled on February 5, 2009.

When screws are missing from the upper bunk's guardrails, the vertical slats on the guardrails can detach and pose the risk of children falling when getting in or out of the upper bunk. The bunk beds were sold through the Land of Nod catalog, online at www.landofnod.com and at the Land of Nod stores in Illinois and Washington state from January 2006 through January 2009.

Baby Necessities Pacifiers Recalled on March 24, 2009.

The pacifiers are banned under federal law. They failed federal safety tests when the nipples separated from the base. This poses a choking hazard to young children. The pacifiers were sold at dollar and discount stores nationwide from August 2007 through January 2009.

Fisher-Price 3-in-1 High Chairs Recalled on March 24, 2009.

The seat can fall backwards from the high chair frame if the booster seat release is unlatched while the child is in the product. Also, the seat back can detach if not fully snapped in place, posing a fall hazard and a risk of serious injury to young children. The firm has received one report of a seat back detaching and child falling out, resulting in a skull fracture. The high chairs were sold at Target stores nationwide from December 2008 through March 2009.

Evenflo Majestic High Chairs Recall Expanded on April 2, 2009.

Evenflo has expanded its December 18, 2008 Recall of 95,000 Majestic High Chairs to include 90,000 additional high chairs.

Plastic caps and metal screws on both sides of the high chair can loosen and fall out, which causes the seatback to suddenly fall back or detach from the high chair. Children can fall out or collide with objects and suffer broken bones, abrasions, cuts and bruises.

For all models covered under both the December 18, 2008 and the April 2, 2009 recall, Evenflo received 156 reports of seatbacks reclining, falling back and/or detaching unexpectedly which resulted in 52 reports of bumps and bruises to the head, 2 reports of broken bones, and at least 50 reports of other injuries including abrasions, cuts, and bruises. Evenflo received more than 1145 reports of plastic caps and screws falling out of high chairs, including 8 reports of caps and screws found in children's hands or mouths that were removed before choking occurred.

Included in the December 18, 2008 recall are Evenflo Majestic High Chairs made before January 23, 2007 that have the following model numbers: 3001395A, 3001583, 3001633A, 3001669, 3001700A, 3001713, 3001713A, 3001730A, 3001732, 3001732A, 3001733, 3001742, 3001742A and 3001756.

The expanded recall includes Evenflo Majestic High Chairs made between January 23, 2007 and December 31, 2008 that have the following model numbers: 3001395, 3001395A, 3001604, 3001700, 3001713, 3001713A, 3001730A, 3001732, 3001733, 3001742, 3001742A, 3001756, 3001821A, 3001840A, 3001845, 30011848, 3001852, 3001932, 3002719 and 3003845.

The production date and model number can be found on the white label on the seatback.

The high chairs were sold at juvenile product and mass merchandise stores nationwide, including Toys "R" Us, Babies "R" Us, Burlington Coat Factory, Shopko, and online at www.walmart.com, from January 2006 through March 2009 for between $80 and $110.

Model number

643,000 Evenflo Envision High Chairs Recalled on April 2, 2009.

Recline fasteners and metal screws on both sides of the high chair can loosen and fall out, causing the seatback to detach or recline unexpectedly. Children can fall backwards or fall out of the high chair and suffer bumps and bruises to the head, abrasions, cuts and bruises. Detached hardware also poses a choking hazard to children.

Evenflo has received 320 reports of seatbacks detaching or reclining unexpectedly, resulting in 19 reports of bumps and bruises to the head and 35 reports of other injuries including abrasions, pinches and bruises. Evenflo also received 13 reports of recline fasteners and screws falling out of the high chair, resulting in 1 incident in which the fastener and screws were found in a child's hand or mouth but were removed before choking occurred.

The recall includes all Evenflo Envision High Chairs. Both "Evenflo" and "Envision" are printed on the front of the tray.

The high chairs were sold at juvenile product and mass merchandise stores nationwide, including Toys "R" Us, Babies "R" Us, Kmart and Burlington Coat Factory from December 2002 through April 2006 for between $80 and $110.

SunKids Convertible Cribs Recalled on April 2, 2009.

The sides of the crib are made of mesh that expands, creating a gap between the side and the crib's mattress if the mattress is not zipped into place. If a mattress is added, the mesh sides can expand to create a gap between the side and the added mattress. A young child can slip into this gap and become entrapped or suffocate. Also, the crib's drop side can fail to fully latch, posing a fall hazard to young children.

There have been no injuries reported with this crib. However the CPSC is aware of the death of a 5-month-old child in August 2008 involving another company's nearly identical crib that was subsequently recalled. The child became entrapped between the mattress and the mesh side and suffocated.

These cribs were sold at small juvenile product retailers in New York, New Jersey, and California from January 2007 through October 2008.

Zoo Pacifiers Recalled on April 7, 2009.

The nipples of the pacifiers can separate from the base easily, posing a choking hazard to young children. The pacifiers were sold at supermarkets and pharmacy stores nationwide from December 2002 through March 2009.

Simplicity Travel Tender Play Yards Recalled on April 7, 2009.

One or more rails can collapse unexpectedly, posing a fall or entrapment hazard to young children. The CPSC is aware of at least 5 reports of one or more of the rails collapsing.

The play yards are portable and bear the "Simplicity" logo.

The play yards were sold at Burlington Coat Factory stores nationwide and online at www.babiesrus.com, www.target.com and www.kohls.com from March 2005 through January 2009 for about $100. Consumers should immediately stop using the play yards and return them to the place of purchase for a refund or replacement product.

SportsPlay Playground Equipment Recalled on April 22, 2009.

The paint on the handrails and posts on the playground equipment contains high amounts of lead. The playground equipment was sold by authorized SportsPlay dealers nationwide from January 2003 through December 2007.

Jardine Crib Recall Expanded on April 30, 2009.

The June 24, 2008 Jardine crib recall that was first expanded on January 6, 2009 has been expanded a second time to include 7 additional models. The recall now includes 472,450 cribs.

The wooden crib slats and spindles on these cribs can break, creating a gap, which could pose an entrapment and strangulation hazard to infants and toddlers.

The following is a list of all crib model numbers that have been recalled. The model number is printed on a label located on the inside of the bottom rail of the headboard or footboard.

If you have one of these cribs, stop using it immediately. Contact Jardine at 1-800-646-4106 or visit www.jardinecribreCALL.com to receive a full credit toward the purchase of a new crib. The cribs were sold at KidsWorld, Geoffrey stores, Toy "R" Us, and Babies "R" Us stores nationwide and online at www.babiesrus.com from January 2002 through April 2009 for between $150 and $330. One model, 0309K00 Mahogany Positano Lifetime Crib, retailed for $450.

Eddie Bauer Soothe & Sway Play Yards Recalled on May 13, 2009.

The play yard's rocking bassinet attachment can tilt even when secured by straps in the non-rocking mode or can stay tilted without returning to a level sleeping surface while in the rocking mode, causing an infant to roll to the corner or side of the bassinet. The infant can then become wedged in the corner or pressed against the side or bottom of the bassinet, posing a risk of suffocation or positional asphyxiation. Dorel Juvenile Group and the CPSC have received 10 reports of infants rolling to one side, including 6 infants who had their faces pressed against the side or the bottom of the bassinet. One child reportedly was turning purple and was out of breath when discovered. The play yards were sold at Target, Sears, and Burlington Coat Factory stores nationwide and online from January 2008 through May 2009 for about $150.

Gothic Cabinet Craft Bunk Beds Recalled on May 21, 2009.

The bunk beds do not have sufficient headboards, footboards, or guardrails and have gaps between parts of the upper bunk that could allow a child’s body to pass through but not a child’s head. These bunk beds pose a fall, entrapment, and strangulation hazard to children and violate the spacing requirements of the federal bunk bed safety standard. The bunk beds were sold in retail stores in the New York and New Jersey metropolitan area from June 2000 through October 2008.

13-foot Square Trampolines Recalled on May 26, 2009.

The straps supporting the top of the trampoline’s enclosure to the poles can fail. The enclosure could drop if these straps break, posing a risk that a user could fall from the trampoline. The trampolines were sold at specialty stores and major retailers nationwide and online from January 2007 through February 2009.

Step2 Play Up Gym Play Sets Recalled on May 27, 2009.

The triangular hangers that attach the swing's ropes to the upper rail of the play set can break, posing a fall hazard to children. The play sets were sold at Toys "R" Us stores nationwide from January 2009 through April 2009.

Outdoor Playset Gliders Recalled on June 4, 2009.

The retaining rings used to secure the gliders to the playset can become loose or detached, posing a fall hazard to children. The playsets were sold by Backyard Buildings and More and Lowe's stores nationwide and online at www.Costco.com, www.BettyMills.com, and www.BackyardBuildings.com from February 2008 through May 2009.

Bugaboo Bee Strollers Recalled on June 2, 2009.

One or both sides of the brakes can fail, causing a stroller to unexpectedly roll away on an incline. The strollers were sold at juvenile product retailers nationwide and online from August 2007 through April 2009.

Bonavita "Cabana" Drop Side Cribs Recalled on June 9, 2009.

The wooden crib slats can detach or break, creating a gap that can pose an entrapment and strangulation hazard to infants and toddlers. LaJobi has received 10 reports of slats falling out of rails and 6 reports of slats breaking. This recall involves Bonavita "Cabana" wooden drop side cribs with metal mattress supports. The cribs were manufactured from January 2006 through October 2008 and have production dates between 01 JAN 2006 and 31 OCT 2008. The model name, color, product order (PO) number, production date and other crib identifiers are printed on a label located on the inside bottom rail of the headboard or footboard. The cribs were sold at USA Baby, Beautiful Beginnings, Buy Buy Baby and other specialty stores nationwide from January 2006 through May 2009 for about $450.

Bonavita "Hudson" and Babi Italia "Pinehurst" Drop Side Cribs Recalled on June 9, 2009.

The lower spring pins on the footboard and headboard can pop out of the tracks located on the drop side, causing the drop side to detach from the crib. When the drop side detaches, it creates a hazardous gap between the drop side and the crib mattress in which infants and toddlers can become entrapped and suffocate or fall from cribs. LaJobi has received 33 reports of drop side detachment due to spring pin failure. In these reports, 2 children became entrapped and 1 child fell from the crib. The recalled cribs are wood with a metal mattress support and have drop sides and were sold in a variety of finishes including cherry, espresso, natural, and white. Hudson and Pinehurst drop side cribs with production dates from December 2006 through August 2007 are included in the recall. The recalled cribs have the production date, product order (PO) number, item number, and color printed on a label attached to the footboard or headboard. Babi Italia Pinehurst drop side cribs were sold exclusively by Babies "R" Us. Bonavita Hudson drop side cribs were sold at Baby Basics, Beautiful Beginnings, and Buy Buy Baby stores and other children's product stores nationwide from December 2006 through December 2007 for about $300.

400,000 Simplicity Drop Side Cribs Recalled on July 2, 2009.

The crib's plastic hardware can break or deform, causing the drop side to detach. When the drop side detaches, it creates space between the drop side and the crib mattress. Infants and toddlers can roll into this space and become entrapped which can lead to suffocation. CPSC is aware of one death involving an 8-month-old child who became entrapped and suffocated between the drop side and the crib mattress when a plastic connector on the drop side broke. CPSC also is aware of an additional 25 incidents involving the drop side detaching from the crib. The recalled model numbers include but may not be limited to: 8050, 8325, 8620, 8745, 8748, 8755, 8756, 8765, 8778, 8810, and 8994, 8995, 8996. The cribs were sold at department stores, children's stores, and mass merchandisers nationwide from January 2005 through June 2009 from between $150 and $300.

Jaloma Pacifiers Recalled on July 7, 2009.

The pacifier mouth guard and the ventilation holes are too small and fail to meet federal safety standards. The pacifier could pose a choking and aspiration hazard to young children. The pacifiers were sold at retail stores in New Jersey and New York from February 2008 through March 2009.

One Million Kolcraft Play Yards Recalled on July 8, 2009.

The play yard's side rail can fail to latch properly and when a child pushes against the rail it can unlatch unexpectedly, posing a fall hazard to children. Kolcraft received 347 reports of sides of the play yard collapsing unexpectedly, resulting in 21 injuries to young children, including bumps, scrapes, bruises and one concussion. The play yards were sold at Babies "R" Us, Walmart, Kmart, Sears, Target and other stores nationwide and online from January 2000 through January 2009 for between $50 and $160. Consumers should immediately stop using the play yard and contact Kolcraft for a free repair kit at 1-866-594-4208 or visit the firm's Web site at www.kolcraft.com.

Baby Bjorn Bouncer Chairs Recalled on July 28, 2009.

Baby Bjorn Babysitter Balance and Balance Air bouncer chairs have small, sharp metal objects in the padded area of the bouncer chair which can protrude and pose a laceration hazard to young children. The bouncer chairs were sold by baby product retailers and various mass merchants nationwide, online and in catalogs from September 2008 through July 2009.

Little Tikes Clubhouse Swing Set Recalled on July 30, 2009.

The swing set did not come with assembly directions for the swing seat harness. The swing seat harness needs to be completed by the consumer. The swing seats can detach if the harness is not assembled properly, which could result in falls and injuries during use. The swing set was sold by various retailers, including Toys "R" Us and Walmart from October 2008 through March 2009.

La Siesta Yayita Baby Hammocks Recalled on August 4, 2009.

The hammock can flip over, posing a serious fall hazard and strangulation hazard to infants who become entrapped in the seat's restraint straps while upside down. The hammocks were sold by Nova Natural Toys & Crafts online at www.novanatural.com from October 2007 through October 2008. The hammocks were also sold by Kaplan Early Learning Company in Kaplan's 2005-2007 Infant, Toddlers & Two (ITT) catalog and online at www.kaplanco.com from July 2005 through August 2008.

Spalding In-Ground Basketball Hoops Recalled on August 4, 2009.

The bolts in the base can fail, causing the unit to fall. This poses a risk of serious injury to consumers. The basketball hoops were sold at MC Sports, Academy Sports, Dunham's Sports and other sporting goods stores nationwide from January 2009 through July 2009.

Safety 1st SmartLight Stair Gates Recalled on August 6, 2009.

The hinges that hold the stair gate in place can break, posing a fall hazard to children if the gate is placed at the top of the stairs. The gates were sold at mass merchandise and juvenile product stores nationwide, including Babies "R" Us, Toys "R" Us, Walmart, and online from January 2005 through July 2009.

Graco Jump 'n Jive Doorway Jumpers Recalled on August 6, 2009.

The doorway jumpers include detachable toys that are attached to the jumper straps with strips of hook and loop fabric. The strips of fabric are not permanently attached to the toys and can become detached during use, posing a choking hazard. The jumpers were sold at Babies "R" Us and other children's specialty retail stores nationwide and online at www.Amazon.com from April 2009 through July 2009.

Circo Booster Seats Recalled on August 6, 2009.

The booster seat restraint buckle can open unexpectedly, allowing a child to fall from the chair and be injured. The booster seats were sold exclusively at Target stores nationwide from December 2008 through June 2009.

2009 d'Lite ST and Solo ST Child Trailers Recalled August 19, 2009.

The axle assembly's internal sleeve can loosen, causing one wheel to separate from the trailer. This poses a risk of injury to the child occupant or bike rider. The trailers were sold by independent bicycle retailers and specialty outdoor retailers nationwide and on various Web sites from November 2008 through June 2009.

Baby Jogger City Mini Strollers Recalled on August 27, 2009.

The stroller's restraint buckle could break or unlatch allowing the child or infant to fall out. The strollers were sold at juvenile product stores, mass merchandisers, and department stores nationwide and on various Web sites, including www.amazon.com from November 2007 through July 2009.

Big Lots Stores Wooden Bunk Beds Recalled on September 23, 2009.

The bunk beds' mattress support slats and side support railings can break, posing a risk of the bunk bed collapsing and a fall hazard to consumers. The bunk beds were sold exclusively at Big Lots stores nationwide from May 2008 through February 2009.

Warning Issued on My Baby Soother Pacifiers on October 26, 2009.

The CPSC issued a warning on "My Baby Soother" pacifiers because the distributor, T & L Trading Corp., has refused the recall them. The nipples can separate from the base of the pacifier easily, posing a choking hazard to infants and toddlers. The pacifiers were sold at grocery stores, delis, and discount stores in Bronx, Brooklyn, Broadway, and Coney Island of New York from August 2007 through July 2009.

More than 2.1 Million Stork Craft and Fisher-Price Drop Side Cribs
 Recalled on November 23, 2009.

(Stork Craft label is on the assembly instruction sheet attached to the mattress support board)

(Fisher Price label is on the assembly instruction sheet attached to the mattress support board)

More than 2.1 Million
Stork Craft and Fisher-
Price Drop Side Cribs
Recalled on November 23, 2009.

Over 2.1 million Stork Craft cribs, including 147,000 cribs with the Fisher-Price logo, have been recalled because the drop side is defective. The defect caused the deaths of 4 children. The drop side of the crib can detach, which creates a space between the drop side and the mattress where infants and toddlers can become trapped and suffocate. Detachment results when the plastic hardware breaks, deforms, or is missing. Additionally, the drop side can be installed upside down, which can result in broken or disengaged plastic parts.

The CPSC, Health Canada and Stork Craft are aware of 110 incidents of drop-side detachment. As a result of the detachment, there have been 4 infant deaths. In other cases, the drop side detached completely, posing a fall hazard to children. There are reports of 20 falls from cribs that resulted in concussions, bumps and bruises.

The cribs were sold at major retailers including BJ's Wholesale Club, J.C. Penney, Kmart, Meijer, Sears, USA Baby, and Walmart. They were also sold online at www.amazon.com, www.babiesrus.com, www.costco.com, www.target.com, and www.walmart.com. They were sold from January 1993 through October 2009. The manufacturing date can be located on the assembly instruction sheet attached to the mattress support board. Consumers who have these cribs should stop using them immediately and contact Stork Craft at 1-877-274-0277 to receive a free repair kit that will convert the drop side into a fixed side.

LaJobi Reannounces 2001 Recall of "Molly" and "Betsy" Cribs on December 2, 2009.

LaJobi is reannouncing the 2001 recall of two crib models due to concerns that the cribs are being sold in secondhand or thrift stores. The cribs were recalled in 2001 because they have cut-outs in the end panels that children can get their heads trapped in, which can result in strangulation. The CPSC is aware of one death in a "Betsy" crib when a one-year-old's head and neck became trapped in the cut-out. The cribs were sold at juvenile specialty stores nationwide from May 2000 through September 2001. The cribs have not been available at retail since 2001. Consumers who have these cribs should stop using them immediately and contact LaJobi at 1-800-266-2848 to receive replacement end panels that eliminate the hazard.

Amby Baby Motion Beds/Hammocks Recalled on December 8, 2009.

The side-to-side shifting or tilting of the hammock can cause the infant to roll and become trapped or wedged against the hammock's fabric or mattress pad, resulting in a suffocation hazard. Amby is aware of 2 infant suffocation deaths in this product. The hammocks were sold online at www.ambybaby.com and by other Internet retailers from January 2003 through October 2009. Consumers who have these hammocks should stop using them immediately and contact Amby Baby USA at 1-866-544-9721 for a free repair kit.

447,000 Dorel Infant Car Seats/Carriers Recalled on December 18, 2009.

The recalled car seats were sold under the Safety 1st, Cosco, Eddie Bauer and Disney brand. When used as an infant carrier, the child restraint handle to the seat can loosen and come off, posing a fall hazard to infants. Dorel received 77 reports of the child restraint handle fully or partially coming off the car seat resulting in 3 injuries to infants including bumps, bruises and a head injury. The car seats were sold at department and juvenile product stores nationwide from January 2008 through December 2009. Consumers who have this product should not use the handle of the car seat until the repair kit has been installed. Consumers can contact Dorel Juvenile Group at 1-866-762-3316 for a free repair kit.

IKEA Highchairs Recalled on December 22, 2009.

SUDDEN INFANT DEATH SERVICES
of illinois, inc.

FACTS ON SIDS

Sudden Infant Death Syndrome is the sudden, unexpected death of an apparently healthy infant under one year of age. SIDS is a diagnosis of exclusion when an infant death remains unexplained after the performance of a complete postmortem investigation, including an autopsy, an examination of the scene of death and a review of the medical history.

Despite declining rates of SIDS, it remains the leading cause of death for infants one month to one year of age, claiming the lives of more than 2,100 babies each year.

- While SIDS occurs in all socio-economic, racial and ethnic groups, African American and Native American babies are 2 to 3 times more likely to die of SIDS than Caucasian babies.
- Most SIDS deaths occur when a baby is between 2 and 4 months old; 90 percent of all SIDS deaths occur before 6 months of age.
- Most babies that die of SIDS appear to be healthy prior to death.
- 60 percent of SIDS victims are male; 40 percent are female.
- Currently, there is no known way to prevent SIDS deaths in all cases. There are precautions that caregivers can take to prevent the risk of sudden infant death. Please follow the "Safe Sleeping Tips" on the next page.

SAFE SLEEPING TIPS

- The best place for a baby to sleep is alone in an approved crib or portable play yard. It is important that a baby not share a bed with another adult or child because of the risk of accidental suffocation.
- All infants should sleep on a firm, flat mattress covered only by a tight fitting sheet. Babies should never sleep on surfaces not specifically meant for infant sleep. In the United States, adult mattresses were never intended for a sleeping infant. Newer mattresses have pillow toppers that are much too soft for a baby who may not be able to turn their head from side to side in order to take a breath of fresh air. Babies have suffocated from sleeping on sofas, pull out couches, chairs, waterbeds, beanbags, sheepskins, a sagging mattress or a mattress that does not fit snugly against the head board or footboard of a crib. It is also important that mattresses never be covered with thin plastic covering.
- Stuffed animals, pillows, bumper pads or other soft fluffy items do not belong in a baby's sleep area.
- Always place a baby on their back for sleep. In Illinois, SIDS deaths have decreased nearly 68% since we began the "Back to Sleep" national campaign. Infants should always be placed on their back for both nap time and nighttime sleep.
- A baby should sleep in a smoke free room. This includes not sleeping in a room where others smoke as well as not bed sharing with an adult who is a smoker. Smoking has repeatedly been linked to SIDS, especially when bed sharing occurs between a baby and a smoker. Pregnant women should not smoke, as this increases the chances of a SIDS death.
- Be careful not to overdress or overheat a baby. Infants that are overheated are more vulnerable and at an increased risk for SIDS. Dress a baby in as many layers of clothing as the caregiver wears. Do not use a thick blanket or quilt to cover the baby. Instead, use a wearable sleep sack. A baby's face should never be covered during sleep because it could pose a suffocation risk.
- Don't forget about Tummy Time when an infant is awake and supervised. Back to Sleep - Tummy to Play!

Other Dangerous & Recalled Products in 2009

Children's products are not the only items that are recalled. Each year, millions of consumer goods are recalled by the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) because they are defective and pose a risk of injury to consumers. To avoid using dangerous products, consumers should sign up to receive CPSC e-mail notification of recalled products.

Here are examples of some of the other categories of products recalled in 2009.

1. HOME APPLIANCES

Every year, the CPSC recalls dangerous home appliances. On March 10, 2009, Maytag recalled more than 1.6 million refrigerators because an electrical failure can cause overheating and pose a serious fire hazard. Consumers should regularly check the CPSC Web site to determine if their refrigerator, oven, stove, range, dishwasher, washing machine or microwave oven has been recalled.

2. COFFEE AND TEA MAKERS

In 2009, more than 1.4 million coffee and tea makers were recalled. The defective products overheat, melt, or unexpectedly expel hot water, posing burn and scalding risks to consumers. Consumers should check the CPSC Web site to determine if they own a recalled coffee or tea maker.

3. CLOTHING

This year 300,000 Blair chenille robes were recalled after 9 people were killed and others were seriously burned when the robes caught fire. Most of the individuals were cooking when the robes caught fire. Most of the victims were in their 70s and 80s.

4. WINDOW BLINDS AND SHADES

In 2009, an unprecedented more than 11 million window blinds and shades were recalled because the cords pose a strangulation hazard to children. Three children have died after strangling on blinds recalled this year, and others have been seriously injured in near-strangulation incidents. Consumers are encouraged to check the cords on blinds and shades often, and confirm that they have not been recalled by checking the CPSC Web site.

5. ADULT ATVs, RIDING MOWERS, SNOWMOBILES, AND OTHER OFF ROAD VEHICLES

Users of these items should continually check the CPSC Web site for recalls. For example, on March 31, 2009, Yamaha recalled 120,000 off road vehicles after drivers and passengers in the vehicles were killed or injured when the vehicles unexpectedly rolled over.

6. BICYCLES

In 2009, 118,125 individual bicycles were recalled because of defects that can cause the rider to lose control of the bicycle and crash. Consumers should check the CPSC Web site for bicycle recalls.

7. HOME ENTERTAINMENT

In 2009, 5.7 million Durabrand DVD players sold at Walmart were recalled because the circuit board can overheat, posing a fire and burn hazard to consumers.

8. CONSUMER TOOLS

Consumers who use tools such as circular saws, table saws, band saws, or nail guns should check the CPSC Web site for recalls. Often the injuries associated with these products are laceration or burns from fire hazards.

9. HOME EXERCISE EQUIPMENT

Home exercise equipment, such as bicycle trainers and elliptical machines, are often subject to recalls. On March 3, 2009, Bowflex recalled 78,000 home gyms because the seat can fail if it is not properly secured, posing a fall hazard to consumers. Consumers should check the CPSC Web site for home exercise equipment recalls.

10. SCUBA DIVING EQUIPMENT

There have been more than 87,000 individual units of diving equipment recalled. On October 14, 2009, SI Tech recalled 65,000 air hoses because the air flow can be restricted. The defect resulted in the death of one diver in California.
