RE: FOIA Request for Review – 2024 PAC 81001

Dear

This determination is issued pursuant to section 9.5(c) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).<sup>1</sup> For the reasons explained below, the Public Access Bureau concludes that no further action is warranted in this matter.

On April 8, 2024, the Hinsdale Public Library (Library) received your FOIA request seeking a "list of the names of all persons over the age of 18 who currently hold a Library Card issued by the Hinsdale Library Public Library."<sup>2</sup> Later that day, the Library denied your request pursuant to section 7(1)(a) of FOIA<sup>3</sup> citing the Library Records Confidentiality Act (Confidentiality Act).<sup>4</sup> On April 11, 2024, you submitted a Request for Review contesting the denial.

Section 7(1)(a) of FOIA allows a public body to withhold "[i]nformation specifically prohibited from disclosure by federal or State law or rules and regulations implementing federal or State law[.]" Section 1(a) of the Confidentiality Act<sup>5</sup> is a provision of State law that provides "[t]he registration and circulation records of a library are confidential information. No person shall publish or make any information contained in such records available to the public unless" certain conditions are met. (Emphasis added.) The conditions under which a person may be permitted access to those records are then enumerated.<sup>6</sup> Section 1(c) of the Confidentiality Act<sup>7</sup> defines the term "library" to include "any public library" and defines "registration records" as "any information a library requires a person to provide in order for that person to become eligible to borrow books and other materials."

The Library is a public library,<sup>8</sup> and therefore, meets the threshold requirement of the Confidentiality Act. Further, the Library's response to your FOIA request indicated that "[i]n order for a person to become eligible to borrow books and other materials, the person is required to provide a name."<sup>9</sup> Therefore, the Library card holders' names you seek meet the definition of "registration records" and any records that may exist containing those names fall within the scope of the Confidentiality Act. No provision of the Confidentiality Act permits a person to receive a library's registration records in response to a FOIA request, and you have not indicated that you have received a court order requiring the release of such information. Therefore, you are not among the individuals authorized to obtain copies of those records.

Because the information you requested is subject to the confidentiality provisions of the Confidentiality Act, which specifically prohibits disclosure to an unauthorized party, this office concludes that the record is exempt from disclosure pursuant to section 7(1)(a) of FOIA. Accordingly, this office has determined that no further action is warranted as to this matter.

Very truly yours,
