The Workplace Rights Bureau will carefully evaluate your allegations to determine whether to initiate an investigation. That decision should not be considered a determination of the merits of your allegations or the result of a comprehensive finding of fact or law.
In filing this complaint, I understand that the Attorney General is not my private attorney, but rather enforces Illinois laws on behalf of the people of the state. I also understand that if I have any questions concerning my individual legal rights or responsibilities, I should contact a private attorney.
